

2024-25 ACADEMIC COURSES

BMG 273 : MANAGING OPERATIONS

In this course, students will be introduced to the fundamental processes of managing and controlling a variety of operations. Students will learn concepts in operations management that are recognized as important factors in business, including work processes, project management, scheduling and inventory management, quality tools, managing human resources on projects and in teams, and customer management. It is recommended that students have basic supervision knowledge obtained from previous coursework or work experience.

Level I Prereq: Academic Reading and Writing Levels of 6; Academic Math Level 2

Description	Hours
Credits	3
Lecture Hours	45
Clinical Hours	0
Lab Hours	0
Other Hours	0
Total Hours	45

Accurate as of 04/26/2024 Information is subject to change without notice.