

2023-24 ACADEMIC COURSES

CHN 202: SECOND YEAR CHINESE II

This course is a continuation of second year standard Mandarin Chinese (Putonghua in China, and Guoyu in Taiwan). Students will review and expand the lexicon and grammatical structures learned in the prerequisite courses. Students will learn how to grasp the main ideas of both formal and informal short speeches in academic settings. The goal of the course is to improve students' levels of communicative competence in listening, speaking, reading and writing in modern Chinese, with an emphasis on the traditional, non-simplified, character writing system.

Level I Prereq: Academic Reading and Writing Levels of 6; CHN 201 minimum grade "C" or Students who have taken a Chinese placement exam elsewhere may request an override from the instructor.
