DAN 115: DANCE STYLES I

In this course, students will explore the basic techniques of multiple dance disciplines including, but not limited to: modern, ballet, jazz, popular, and diverse world styles. Students will be encouraged to develop dance techniques both individually and as required to dance in a choreographed group setting, concentrating on exercises, choreography, cultural history, and music as it applies to each style. Dance performances will be determined based on student interests and learning styles. This course may be completed for credit up to a maximum of two times.
