WEB 250: PHP AND MYSQL

This class is no longer offered as of Fall 2020.

In this course, students will focus on PHP, MySQL for web development. Server-side concepts are stressed, including authentication, sessions, data storage and retrieval and modular web development. Students must be proficient in HTML5, CSS and JavaScript and should have prior programming experience. The title of this course was previously Web Development IV.

Level I Prereq: Academic Reading and Writing Levels of 6; Academic Math Level 1

Swipe left to see full chart

Check the schedule