WEB 263: BUSINESS ANALYSIS AND PROJECT MANAGEMENT

This class is no longer offered as of Fall 2019.

In this course, students will focus on the principles and practices of business analysis and project management in the context of web application development. Students will author use cases and develop either paper or digital prototypes of applications, considering both waterfall and agile project management methodologies.

Level I Prereq: Academic Reading and Writing Levels of 6; WEB 210 and WEB 213, minimum grade "C" or instructor consent

Swipe left to see full chart

Check the schedule