DRA 204 : IMPROVISATIONAL ACTING

In this interactive acting course, students will be introduced to the art of developing and performing scenes without a previously written script. Through theatre games, improvised exercises and performances, students will learn and build upon the tenets and best practices of short and long-form theatrical improvisation. This class explores how to quiet the inner critic, access one's most imaginative impulses, and create inspired, collaborative performances. These skills apply to stage and film acting. The title of this course was previously Improvisational Acting. Level I Prerequisite: Academic Reading and Writing Levels of 6

Level I Prereq: Academic Reading and Writing Levels of 6
