
2023-24 ACADEMIC COURSES

DRA 208 : ACTING II

This course is a continuation of the introduction to acting skills and techniques, exploring a diversity of intermediate approaches through improvisation and the presentation of dramatic scripts. Voice projection, staging, character development and emotional expression are explored in theatre games, monologues and scenes. The skills apply to stage and film acting, and will appeal to anyone interested in developing acting, dramatic staging, presentation and/or communication skills. The title of this course was previously Acting for Theatre II.

Level I Prereq: Academic Reading and Writing Levels of 6; DRA 152 minimum grade "C", may enroll concurrently
