EDU 220: ARTS IN THE CLASSROOM

In this course, students will explore approaches to creating and teaching arts curricula in elementary classrooms. Students will utilize a variety of studio practices to create personal works of art as well as analyze historical and cultural artworks. Students will learn inquiry-based teaching and developmentally appropriate arts teaching strategies for meeting state standards across content areas that support developing the whole person. Emphasis on culturally-relevant teaching and teacher language while using the arts as an effective tool for authentic assessment will be addressed.
