

2021-22 ACADEMIC COURSES

GEO 101 : WORLD REGIONAL GEOGRAPHY

This introductory course in World Regional Geography is divided into two parts. In the first portion of the class, students become familiar with the basic principles and concepts of physical and cultural geography, which they will employ during the remainder of the semester. In the second part of the class, students survey the world on a region-by-region basis, identifying the specific geographic characteristics such as climate, terrain, population, industry and manufacturing, trade, transportation, and agriculture, which give the individual regions their unique identity.
